INTRODUCTION.

THE signification of the name Van Voorhis, formerly written Van Voorhies and Van Voorhees, the date of emigration to this country, and the line of descent of the family down to the year 1730, when Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees settled at Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y., from Long Island, have been investigated and recorded by that able historian of our early Dutch settlers, Hon. Teunis G. Bergen, in his work entitled "The History of the Bergen Family, with Notes upon some of the Branches of the Couenhoven, Voorhies, Eldert, and other Long Island families," and the following record of one generation in Holland and the first two generations in this country are taken—with his kind permission—from that interesting volume. Mr. Bergen does not continue the line of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees after his settlement at Fishkill; but the writer, through searches made in the Surrogates' and Registers' offices of both New York and Poughkeepsie, the records of the Dutch Churches of Poughkeepsie, Fishkill, Hopewell, and New Hackensack, tombstone inscriptions in churchyards, records in family Bibles, unrecorded papers in the possession of families, extracts from county and local histories, etc., has been enabled to connect the family of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees with that of his descendant, William Roe Van Voorhis.

In the early part of his work, in speaking of the difficulty in tracing Dutch genealogies, Mr. Bergen says: "Of the private letters which passed between the early Dutch settlers and their European relatives which might have thrown light upon their previous history, very few remain. The writer has in his possession several letters written by the relatives of the Van Voorhies family in the Fatherland to their friends in this country, and they are the only ones he has discovered in his examinations of old papers and documents among the descendants of the Netherlanders in Kings County."

STEVEN COERTE of VOORHIES, or Steven Koers, as written by himself, who emigrated to this country from Holland in the year 1660, was a son of Coert Alberts of Voorhies, who resided in front of the village of Hees, or Hies, near the town of Ruinen, in the province of Drenthe, in the Netherlands, the word "voor" meaning in English "before" or "in front of."

In regard to the arms of the family, published herewith, the writer, while in London in 1872, caused a search to be made by the St. James Heraldry Office for arms belonging to the Holland family of Van Voorhies, and on the return of the search obtained the accompanying arms with a certificate under the seal of the office. The certificate states that "the armorial bearings assigned to the family, from their extreme simplicity—a golden tower on a red shield quartered with a tree torn up by the roots on a silver field—indicates considerable antiquity. The description of the arms, according to the terms of blazonry on the Continent, is as follows :

E^c aux 1. & 4. de gu à la tour d'or ouv' du champ.
aux 2. & 3. d' argent à l'arbre arr' de sinople.

the heraldic description of which, in England, would be as follows :

Quarterly 1st & 4th gules—a tower d'or opened of the field.
2d & 3d argent—a tree eradicated vert.

Crest—a tower d'or. Motto—Virtus castellum meum.

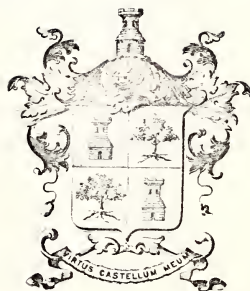

Of the origin and meaning of these arms nothing is recorded ; they may possibly indicate that the first possessor held some castle or fortress in feudal times. The tree is quartered in right of a marriage with the heiress and representative of another family who bore this device."

The engravings of William Roe Van Voorhis and his wife, Rachel Vail, are taken from the family portraits in the possession of Sylvanus Rapalje Esqr., of Hopewell, Dutchess County, N. Y., by his kind permission.

The compiler of these notes would here state that he does not claim the following record to be a genealogy of the family, or even of that branch of it from which William Roe Van Voorhis was descended ; but, having become interested in tracing back his grandfather's lineage, and having in the pursuit collected considerable collateral information, he has thought perhaps it might be interesting to some members of the family to have the material in its present form for reference ; and to that end a limited number of copies have been published by the writer for distribution among the family only. He would also here return his thanks to those of the family, and others, who have assisted him in his labors by furnishing dates, etc., trusting that all shortcomings will be pardoned him in view of his having made it a labor of love.

NEW YORK, January 3, 1881.

 Dated the 1st Day of 1730
 Phil. Van der Elz

This Deed was never recorded, and is now in the possession of Mr. William Henry Van Voorhis, of Fishkill on the Hudson, Dutchess Co., one of the direct descendants of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees.

H. D. B. Bailey, in his History of Fishkill, says, page 373:

"The first settlers at Fishkill Landing, after Peche De-wall, were Roger Brett, the Duboisés, the Pines, and the Van Voorhisés. The Van Voorhisés located on the Stony Kill road, one mile north of the village of Fishkill Landing. The old dwelling yet stands (1874), and is located a few rods north of the residence of Mr. William Henry Van Voorhis. Mr. John Van Voorhis, the father of William Henry, was one of the lineal descendants, and lived there for many years."

In the fourth volume of the Documentary History of New York there is a list of the Freeholders of Dutchess County, made August 28, 1740, certified to as correct by James Wilson, Sheriff of said County, in which list appear the names of

COERT VAN VOORHEES.

JOHANNIS VAN VOORHEES, JUNIOR.

Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees, or Johannes Coerten Van Voorhees, as written by himself, appears from the records of the Dutch Church at Fishkill Village to have been one of the organizers of the church, his signature being affixed to almost all of the early church papers.

The first recorded church paper, which is in the Dutch language and has never been wholly translated, appears to be a certification by the consistories of the Poughkeepsie and Fishkill churches as to the organization of the Fishkill church, and an agreement to call a minister from Holland for the two churches, resulting in a call to the Rev. Cornelius Van Schie, and is dated at Poughkeepsie, Sept. 30, 1734. A fac-simile of the paper, with original signatures also, is contained in the earliest record book of the Poughkeepsie church. Appended to the document are the following signatures :

PETER DU BOYS.	MYNHARDT VAN DE BO-
LEONARDUS VAN CLEES.	GART.
ABRAHAM BRINKERHOFF.	HENDRICK PHYLERS.
ABRAHAM CUYS.	PIETER VAN KLEECK.

ABRAHAM BRINKERHOFF.	HENRY VAN DER BURGH.
ELIAS VAN BENSCHOUTEN.	JACOBUS SWARTWOUT.
JOHANNES COERTEN VAN	HENDRICK PELLIS.
VOORHEES.

The second recorded church paper is an agreement (in the Dutch language) between the churches of Fishkill and Poughkeepsie, through their consistories, to send for a minister from Holland after the departure of the Rev. C. van Schie, appended to which are nine signatures, among which is that of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHEES.

A request (in the Dutch language) for a minister from Holland, addressed to the Rev. H. L. Beels, promising to raise the salary from £80 to £100, appended to which are seven signatures, among which is that of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHEES.

A call (in the Dutch language) to the Rev. Johannis Clemaar, appended to which are eleven signatures, among which is that of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHEES.

Another call for a minister from Holland, appended to which are eleven signatures, among which is that of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHEES.

A letter of the trustees of the Fishkill and Poughkeepsie churches, dated 1745, accepting the Rev. Benjamin Meynema, appended to which are twenty-three signatures, among which are those of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHEES.

In the name of God, Amen ; I, Johannes Van Vorhuis, of Rombout Precinct in Dutchess County, in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being weak in body but of sound memory—blessed be God therefor—Do this fifteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and fifty-five—make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following—that is to say—Impri-mis—I commend my soul to the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection at the last day—and as for that worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me—after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses by my Executors hereinafter named, I give, devise, and dispose thereof as followeth: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son, Court Van Voorhis, the sum of five pounds, to be raised and levied out of my personal estate, wherewith I do exclude and bar him from any other or further claim as being my eldest son and heir-at-law. Item: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son, Zacharias Van Voorhis, the choice of one of my negro men, and also my old negro man Tone, forever; also one good waggon with its tackling, two horses, two cows, a plow and its tackling, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my son Jacob Van Voorhis, before any division is made, one good waggon with its tackling, two horses, two cows, a plow with its tackling, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my dear and loving wife, Sarah Van Voorhis, the sum of seventy-five pounds current money of New York, to be raised and levied out of my personal estate, and to be paid unto her by my Executors hereinafter named within three months after my decease; fifty pounds of said seventy-five pounds is in discharge of so much I covenanted to pay unto her, in and by a contract of marriage entered into between us, and the remaining twenty-five pounds is given her for the love and affection that I have for her. Item: It is my will, order, and desire that my negro woman shall live and serve my said son Zacharias as long as he shall remain unmarried, and in case of his marriage or death, or which shall first happen, she shall and hereby is to be deemed part of my personal estate, and disposed of as is the residue of my personal estate hereinafter mentioned and disposed. Item: I give, devise, and bequeath all my Real Estate whatsoever and wheresoever, in manner following, that is to say : one equal quarter part unto my aforesaid son Court, and to his heirs and assigns forever ; one other equal quarter part unto the children of my late son Johannes Van Voorhis, deceased, and to their several and respective heirs and assigns forever ; one other equal quarter part to my aforesaid son Zacharias Van Voorhis, and to his heirs and assigns forever ; and the remaining equal quarter part thereof unto my well beloved son, Jacob Van Voorhis, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Item : all the rest, residue, and remainder of my personal estate I give, devise, and bequeath unto my three aforesaid sons, the children of my late son Johannes, and my two daughters, Jannetie and Maria—to each son, and to my daughters, and to the children together, one equal and even sixth part, share, and proportion thereof, and that the division and sharing of the said rest, residue, and remainder of my personal estate shall be had and made within six months after my decease. Lastly, I do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint my said sons Zacharias and Jacob, and my sons-in-law, John Brinkerhoff and Elias Dubois, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former and other Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Will recites :

"I give to my son, John Hegeman, the sum of Ten pounds for his birthright. The remainder of my estate to all the children of my son, John Hegeman, by his first wife ; and the children of my son, Henry Hegeman, deceased ; and to the children of my son, Joseph Hegeman, deceased ; and to the children of Henry Lott, deceased ; and to the children of William, which he hath by his first wife, deceased."

She orders all her household goods and wearing apparel to be sold at auction within three months after her death, and the proceeds to be equally divided between all her grandchildren mentioned above.

She leaves as her executors :

In Rikers' "Annals of Newtown" we find the following:

"John Brinkerhoff, styled Colonel, settled in the Rom-bout Precinct, now Fishkill, and married Jane, daughter of Johannes Van Voorhees, and died in 1785, aged 81."

The following extract is from "Historical Sketches," No. 61, by Benson J. Lossing, Poughkeepsie Eagle, issue of Feb. 14, 1874:

"A letter written by Gen. Washington to Gen. Lincoln, announcing the appointment by the Continental Congress of the latter gentleman to the command of troops for the defence of Charleston, is dated at Col. Brinkerhoff's, Oct. 3, 1778. The house in which that letter was written is standing a few rods from the line of the Dutchess and Columbia Railway, about three miles northeast of Fishkill. It is an old-fashioned house, built of stone, with the date 1738 on one of its gables, formed of brick imported from Holland. In that year it was built by John Brinkerhoff (the Colonel Brinkerhoff mentioned in Washington's letter), and is one of a group of buildings in and around Fishkill Village made notable by their connection with historic events. In the Brinkerhoff mansion Washington remained a few days at this time, dating his letters written there, after the one just mentioned, 'Headquarters, Fishkill.' That village and its vicinity were conspicuous during the early years of the old war for Independence as a safe depository of military stores, a meeting-place for the Committee of Safety and the Legislature of New York, and a refuge for the Whigs after the British took possession of the city of New York, in the autumn of 1776. There Samuel Loudon, a Whig printer of New York, halted in his flight and set up his press; and there, in 1777, he printed the first book, as well as one of the most important ones, ever published in this State—that book was the Constitution of the State of New York. There a portion of the Continental army were encamped for a while, and at the headquarters at Brinkerhoff's might have been seen groups of distinguished officers of that army.

HOMESTEAD OF COL. JOHN BRINCKERHOFF--SWARTWOUTVILLE, DUTCHESS CO., N. Y.--1738.

Whenever Washington was at Fishkill he made Colonel Brinkerhoff's his headquarters. He occupied the bedroom back of the parlor, which remains the same, excepting a door that opens into the hall, which has been cut through. The Colonel's wife appears to have been one of those kind-hearted, motherly women, who are never at ease unless every one around them is comfortable; and there is a tradition in the family that she always went to Washington's room after he had retired and tucked the bedclothes around him to keep him warm. The Colonel was a religious man, and a devout member of the old Dutch Church at Fishkill Village. He was rigid in his observances of Christian duties. He said to Washington when he first came there, 'I am commander-in-chief in my own house, and wish everybody under my roof to attend family prayers.' Of course Washington yielded to his wishes."

In the Records of Baptisms of the Dutch Church at Fishkill Village are the following :

JOHN BRINKERHOFF, of	} Will dated Dec. 29, 1784.
Rombout Precinct, Duch-		} Proved March 31, 1785.
ess County, N. Y.

In the name of God, Amen! I, John Brinkerhoff, of Rombout Precinct, in Dutchess County, and in the State of New York, this twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, being in good health and perfect memory—blessed be God therefor—do make and publish this, my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say: Imprimis, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it me, and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection through the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ; and as for my worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, I dispose thereof as follows: First, I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my Executors to be hereinafter mentioned. Item: I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Adrian Brinkerhoff, the sum of Five pounds, current money of New York, to be paid him by my Executors within six months after the decease of my wife, Jannetje Brinkerhoff, which shall be in full bar of any claim or demand which he may or can have against my estate as heir-at-law. Item: I give, devise, and bequeath unto my said grandson, Adrian, that farm which the said Adrian now possesses, situate in Rombout Precinct, containing about two hundred and ninety-two acres; also sixty acres adjoining to said farm, which I bought of Dr. Theodorus Van Wyck; also thirty acres of upland, meadow and swamp, twenty acres thereof to be meadow and swamp and ten acres thereof to be upland, the said upland, meadow and swamp to be taken off the east end of my farm whereon I now live, beginning with the meadow and swamp on the bank of the Fish Kill, on the line of Johannes Rosekrance's farm, from thence running down along the said Fish Kill till it meets with Dr. Van Wyck's swamp, thence westerly along his line so far as to make twenty acres and no more square off to the upland; also beginning with the ten acres of upland at the northeast corner of my said farm, thence running westerly on the line of said farm two chains, thence southerly, slanting off to the said meadow and swamp so far west as to leave a passage down to said meadow on the west side of a point of rocks. Also I give him one hundred and thirteen acres of woodland off the north end of a lot of land which my father-in-law, Johannes Van Voorhis, gave me, lying in Middlebush. I also give him twenty-five acres of Woodland in said Middlebush, joining on Guysbert Schenck's land, near his meadow, which my father, Dirck Brinkerhoff, gave me. I also give him the one full half of a mountain farm, in quantity and quality, which I bought of Benjamin List. I also give him the one full half of all my lands in the Township of Berlin. Furthermore it is my will and pleasure that my said grandson, Adrian Brinkerhoff, shall enjoy and possess the above said farm, with all the buildings thereon, together with the above described pieces and parcels of land, during his natural life; and, furthermore, it is my will and pleasure that after the decease of my said grandson, Adrian, that the above described farm, together with the said pieces and parcels of land, shall be possessed by the widow of my said grandson, to maintain, feed, clothe, and educate all the children of my said grandson till they arrive at lawful age or marriage, and if the widow of my said grandson should die or marry again, then I give and bequeath unto all the children of my said grandson, Adrian Brinkerhoff, the above said farm, with the buildings thereon, together with the above-described pieces and parcels thereof, to them and to each of them, their heirs and assigns, forever, in quantity and quality share and share alike. Item: I give and bequeath unto my grandson, John Brinkerhoff Van Wyck, the farm which I now live on—the thirty acres of upland, meadow and swamp on the east end of my farm given to my grandson Adrian, and the one hundred acres of land, hereafter mentioned, on the west side of my farm, given to my grandson, Dirck Van Wyck, only excepted—together with my dwelling-house, barn and out-houses, &c. appertaining thereto. I also give him the one full half of a mountain farm, in quantity and quality, which I bought of Benjamin List, to have and to hold the said farm and buildings thereof, together with the said half of the said mountain farm, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Provided he shall pay unto my grandchildren born of the body of my daughter Altje, late wife of Dr. Theodorus Van Wyck, viz.: Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, and Abraham, the sum of fifty pounds, New York currency, to each of them and their heirs, twelve months after the decease of my loving wife Jannetje; and in case my said grandson neglects or refuses to pay the said legacies to my said grandchildren or their heirs at the period aforesaid, then on such neglect or refusal I order my Executors to sell so much off my said farm as will pay off the several legacies given to my said grandchildren; and in case either the said Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, and Abraham, or any one of them, should die before age or marriage, then I will, order, and direct my said grandson, John Brinkerhoff Van Wyck, to pay their and each of their respective legacies, sum and sums of fifty pounds aforesaid (so dying) to the survivor or survivors at the time aforesaid. I also give and bequeath unto my said grandson John the one full half of all my right, title, and interest in Frankfort storehouse, lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. I also give him the one full quarter part of all my lands in the Township of Berlin, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Dirck Van Wyck, one hundred acres of land on the west end of the farm whereon I now live, in two pieces, on the north and south sides of the road leading down from Hopewell, beginning, at the south lot, at the blacksmith's shop, thence southerly along the road leading from the new bridge to the Fish Kill, thence up the said Fish Kill till it meets with Dr. Van Wyck's land, thence along said Van Wyck's land northerly till it meets with the said road leading from Hopewell, thence westerly along the said road to the place of beginning, containing fifty acres more or less; also beginning, with the north lot, at the corner of Col. Dirck Brinkerhoff's orchard on the said road, thence running northerly along said Brinkerhoff's line till it meets with Godfrey Hayne's land, thence easterly along said Hayne's line till it meets with Dr. Van Wyck's land, thence southerly along said Van Wyck's line till it meets with the said road, thence westerly along said road to the place of beginning, containing fifty acres more or less. Also I give him one hundred and sixty acres of land lying in Middlebush, being in two pieces—one of the pieces containing twenty-five acres was given me by my Father, Mr. Dirck Brinkerhoff, lying southerly from the twenty-five acres given to my grandson Adrian, and the other piece of land, containing one hundred and thirty-seven acres, was given me by my father-in-law, Mr. Johannes Van Voorhis, lying southerly of the one hundred and thirteen acres given to my grandson Adrian—it being the farm that William Vantine at present possesses. I also give him the one full half of all my right, title, and interest in Frankfort storehouse, lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging. I also give him one full quarter part of all my land in the Township of Berlin; the above said pieces and parcels of land, together with the houses and outhouses, I give to my grandson Dirck Van Wyck, to him and his heirs and assigns forever, provided he lives to the age of twenty-one years, or marriage; and if he should die before age or marriage, then I give and bequeath the said pieces or parcels of land, together with the houses and outhouses thereon, to my grandchildren hereafter mentioned, born of the body of my daughter Altje, dec^d, viz.: Elizabeth, Altje, John Brinkerhoff, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, and Abraham, to be divided equally in quantity and quality to them and to each of them, their heirs and assigns, forever. But in case any one of my above mentioned grandchildren should die before age or marriage, then he, she, or they so dying before age or marriage as aforesaid, that the survivor or survivors of my said grandchildren shall inherit the said estate, share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever—and I do hereby authorize and direct my Executors immediately after my decease to sell all my real estate which lies in Phillips Precinct, and also a lot of land which I bought of Thomas Woodward, lying on the mountains in Rombout Precinct, and also my share in the mines at Kent, Connecticut, and the moneys arising from the sale thereof I dispose of in manner following: that is to say, the one full half thereof I give and bequeath unto all the children now born, or may be born, of my said grandson Adrian, to be put out at interest for the said children by my Executors till each of them arrive at full age or marriage, and the remaining full half of the moneys arising from the sale of said lands I give and bequeath unto my grandchildren, viz.: Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, and Abraham ; but in case any of my said grandchildren should die before age or marriage, that then the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased shall enjoy the full half of all the moneys arising from the sale of the said lands, to them and their heirs, share and share alike. Item : I give unto my well beloved wife, Jannetje Brinkerhoff, the sole and entire management of all my estate, both real and personal whatever (excepting the land in Phillips Precinct, and the lot of land which I bought of Thomas Woodward, and my share in the mines of Kent) for and during her natural life ; and after the decease of my said wife I order and direct my Executors, or the survivor or survivors of them, to sell the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, of what nature or kind soever, at Public Vendue, and the moneys arising from the sale thereof I dispose of in the following manner, viz. : Item : I give and bequeath to the Elders and their successors (in trust) for the Reformed Dutch Church at Fishkill Town, the sum of One hundred pounds New York currency, and the interest money arising therefrom annually to be disposed of by the said Elders and their successors for the benefit of the said Church, and that no part of the principal thereof to be taken for any use whatsoever. Item : I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Jannetje the sum of Fifty pounds New York currency when she shall attain the age of twenty-one years, or at her marriage ; and in case she should die before age or marriage then I give the said Fifty pounds unto my grandchildren, Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, William, and Abraham, to be divided equally between them or their heirs. Item : I give and bequeath unto all the children who are born and who may be born of my grandson Adrian Brinkerhoff, the remaining one full half of my estate (which is not already given), to be equally divided among them, and in case one or more of the children of my said grandson Adrian should die before lawful age or matriage, that then the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased shall inherit the said one full half of the said estate, share and share alike ; and it is also my will and pleasure that when the estate which I have given unto my grandson Adrian shall come to the children who are born and may be born of my said grandson Adrian, the same shall be divided to them in the same manner that I have given them the last half of my estate. Item : I give and bequeath the remaining one full half of my estate (which is not already given) to all my grandchildren born of the body of my daughter Altje, deceased, viz.: Elizabeth, Altje, John Brinkerhoff, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, Dirck, and Abraham, share and share alike, of the moneys arising from the last part of my estate ; and in case any of my said grandchildren should die before age or marriage, that the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased, the said full half of the said estate, share and share alike ; and also it is my will and pleasure that my son-in-law, Dr. Theodorus Van Wyck, who is hereinafter named, in this my last Will and Testament, as one of my Executors, shall have the sole management and care of all the moneys, lands, and tenelements which I have given each of my grandchildren born of the body of my loving daughter Altje, deceased, till they arrive at lawful age or marriage, which moneys I order to be put out at interest, and the lands I order to be rented to careful and industrious tenants. And, furthermore, it is my will and pleasure that in case my old and faithful servant Cullo-man should survive my loving wife Jannetje, that then I will and direct my Executors to give him his choice where to live during life, and the expense of feeding and clothing him shall be paid by my Executors—the one half thereof out of the estate, the other half thereof to be taken out of the estate of all the children of my daughter Altje, deceased, share and share alike. And I do make, constitute, and ordain my beloved wife Jannetje, Executrix ; my son-in-law, Dr. Theodorus Van Wyck, and my good friends, Jacobus Swartwout and Jacob Griffin, Esquire, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In witness whereof, I, the said John Brinkerhoff, have to the first sheet of this, my last Will and Testament (containing two sheets of paper), set my hand, and to the last sheet thereof my hand and seal, the day and year first above written.

Col. John Brinckerhoff and his wife are both buried in the churchyard of the Dutch Church in Fishkill Village, and their tombstones bear the following inscriptions :

IN MEMORY OF
COL JOHN BRINCKERHOFF
WHO DEPT^D THIS LIFE THE 26TH DAY OF MARCH 1785
IN THE 83RD YEAR OF HIS AGE

Ye pious view this humble shrine
Here lies a friend of God, and thine
In age advanced as you may see
Near to the years of Eighty three
In life his closet was his fare
His house was known an house of prayer
At Jesus feet in humble strains
He rested and the promise claimed
In private life and in publick life
A friend to peace, a foe to strife

IN MEMORY OF
JANETIE BRINCKERHOFF
WIFE OF COL JOHN BRINCKERHOFF
WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE
NOV. 11TH 1792

JOHANNIS VAN VOORHIS, of New York City.	}	Will dated July 4, 1804. Proved Sept. 28, 1804. Recorded Liber 45, p. 246.

In the name of God, Amen: I, Johannis Van Voorhis, of the City, County, and State of New York, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God; calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in manner following, revoking and disallowing all former Wills; that is to say, I give my body to the earth from whence I received it, in full assurance of its resurrection at the last day, to be buried in a christianlike manner, at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named. Imprimis: I give my soul to God who gave it me, in full assurance of his gracious acceptance, through the merits of my most compassionate Saviour, Jesus Christ. As for my worldly wealth wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, it is my Will, and I do positively order that my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my Executors as soon as convenient after my death, out of my Estate. Firstly, It is my Will, and I do give, devise, and bequeath unto my loving wife Johannah, in lieu of her dower, the full use and benefit of all my Estate, real and personal, remaining after my just debts are paid, during the time of her widowhood. Secondly, It is my Will, and I do order that after the remarriage or decease of my wife Johanna, all my estate, real and personal, be sold by my Executors, and the monies arising from said sale be distributed in manner following, that is to say: I give, devise, and bequeath unto my daughter Titira Two hundred and fifty dollars, before any division is made of the aforesaid monies. Thirdly, I do give, devise, and bequeath the remainder of the monies as aforesaid unto my seven children, Sarah, Titera, Catherine, Coert, Henry, Johanna, and Elsie, to be divided between them, share and share alike; and in case either of my said children should die leaving issue, that my grandchild or grandchildren shall come in and be entitled to the share of their Father or Mother, as the case may be. Lastly, I do hereby constitute, ordain, and empower my loving wife Johanna, and my son Coert Van Voorhis, and my nephew, John H. Van Beuren, to be the sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament, ratifying, confirming, and declaring this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four.

JOHN VAN VOORHIS.

Mrs. Roger Brett, mentioned above, better known as Madame Brett, was a daughter of Francis Rombout, one of the patentees of Rombout Precinct.

"On January 10, 1709, Roger Brett and Catherine, his wife, gave their joint bond to Capt. Gylob Shelly, of New York, for the sum of £399 6s. This bond falling due, they, in June, 1713, gave a mortgage deed to the executors of Gylob Shelly on their land in Rombout Precinct, 'excepting and reserving always out of said premises one tenement, grist mill, and water course thereunto belonging, together with 300 acres of land adjoining said mill, now in possession of said Roger Brett; also certain parcels of land now in possession of John Terboss, John Buys, Casper Prime, Peter De Boys, and Yowreb Springstead; also 5,000 acres lying and being in any part of the reserved premises.' The money borrowed on the first bond was probably used by Roger Brett and wife in erecting a house and grist-mill the following year. This was the first mill built in Dutchess County, and for a long time Orange County paid tribute to Madame Brett's mill, for by this name it was known far and wide. Roger, the husband of Madame Brett, was killed in the year 1721 by a blow from the boom of a sloop, in which he was coming from New York to Fishkill. Madame Brett survived him for nearly half a century, but never again married. She died in 1764."—SMITH'S History of Dutchess County.

The will of Madame Brett is recorded in the office of the Surrogate of the City and County of New York.

COERT VAN VOORHEES, of	} Will dated Dec. 26, 1782.
Rombout Precinct, Duchess Co., N. Y.

In the name of God, Amen ! I, Court Van Voorhees, of Rumbout Precinct, in Dutchess County, State of New York, being, through the abundant mercy and goodness, though weak in body yet of sound mind and perfect understanding and memory, do constitute this my last Will and Testament, and desire it may be received by all as such. Imprimis : I most humbly bequeath my soul to God my maker, beseeching his most gracious acceptance of it through the all-sufficient merits of my most compassionate Redeemer, Jesus Christ, who gave himself to be an atonement for my sins, and is able to save to the uttermost all that come unto God by him, seeing he liveth to make intercession for them, and who, I trust, will not reject me, a returning penitent sinner, when I come to him for mercy. In this hope and confidence I render up my soul with humble beseeching the most blessed and glorious Trinity—one God most holy, most merciful and gracious—to prepare me for the time of my dissolution, and then to take me to himself unto that peace and rest and incomparable felicity which he has prepared for all that love and fear his holy name. Amen ; blessed be God. Imprimis : I give my body to the earth from whence it was taken, in full assurance of its resurrection from thence at the last day ; as for my burial, I desire it may be decent, at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, who, I doubt not, will manage it with all requisite prudence. As to my worldly wealth, I will and positively order that all my debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged by my Executors hereinafter named. First, I give, bequeath, and devise to my eldest son, Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever, all that messuage, tenement, farm, or parcel of land containing One hundred acres more or less, situate, lying, and being in Rumbout precinct in Dutchess County, now in the possession of, agreeable to a Deed from Johannes Van Voorhees, bearing date the 20th day of May, 1754; reference or relation to said deed being had, the courses and distances, boundaries and contents will at large appear. To have and to hold the said messuage or tenement, farm or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, unto the said Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever. I also give, bequeath, and devise to my said son, Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns, one other piece or parcel of land containing forty acres, situate in Rombout Precinct, in Dutchess County, according and agreeable to a Deed from Francis Brett, bearing date the 29th day of December, 1767; reference unto said deed being had the courses, distances, boundaries, and contents will at large appear. To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever. Also, I give and bequeath to my grandchildren, to wit: Samuel Van Voorhees and Sarah Van Voorhees, son and daughter of my daughter Sarah, deceased, one messuage, tenement, farm, or lot of land containing one hundred and fifty acres, situate in Charlotte Precinct in Dutchess County, in the lower Nine Partners, in lot Number Six, adjoining the farm of my daughter, being in length along my daughter Mary's farm 78 chains and 15 links and in breadth 20 chains. To have and to hold the said messuage, tenement, lot of land and premises, with the appurtenances ; that is to say, the equal undivided half unto the said Samuel Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns ; the other equal undivided half unto the said Sarah Van Voorhees, her heirs and assigns. Also, I give, bequeath, and devise unto my sons and daughters, to wit : Catherina, Barbarah, Janetie, Henry, John, Mary, Helenah, and Zachariah, and to their heirs and assigns, all my right, title, and interest in the right formerly of my late wife Catherine, deceased, in undivided lands situate in the lower or great Nine Partners, which land is equally to be divided among them as to quantity and quality. To have and to hold to each and every of them their one-eighth part thereof, and to each and every of their heirs and assigns. My Will is likewise that such of my children as do not join for the defraying of all expenses necessary to procure and establish my said right to and in said undivided lands, their right or rights shall be forfeited to such of my children as advance the money. Further, my Will is that the said undivided land shall be divided conformable to the intent and purpose of this my Will, both as to quantity and quality. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughters in general, to wit : Catherina, Barbarah, Janetie, Mary, and Helenah, and to my late daughter Sarah's two children, my two negro girls, by the name of Ann and Rose—that is to say, with this condition—that the two negro girls are willing to leave my son Henry Van Voorhees and his family ; if not, to be appraised by my Executors, and according to said appraisement my son, Henry Van Voorhees, is to pay down in cash immediately, that my said five daughters and grandchildren may have the use of the money, and the said money to be equally divided in six equal divisions, one-sixth part to my daughter Sarah's two children, as hereafter shall be mentioned, and for what use applied. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughters in general, to wit: Catherina, Barbarah, Janetie, Mary, and Helenah, and to my daughter Sarah's two children as aforesaid, the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds; that is to say, Two hundred pounds due me from Joseph Horton and Fifty pounds due me from Daniel Van Voorhis, which sum or sums of money is to be equally divided in six equal divisions as aforesaid. Also, I give unto my granddaughter, Sarah Van Voorhees, one chest of drawers, now standing in my room. Also, all the rest and residue of my goods, chattels, and personal estate whatsoever, I give and bequeath to my said son, Henry Van Voorhees, and to his heirs and assigns. Also, it is my Will, and I do empower my Executors hereinafter named, to let the farm or lot of land by me willed and given to my grandchildren, Samuel Van Voorhees and Sarah Van Voorhees, and the rent or rents thereof to be applied by my Executors to and for the maintenance, bringing up and education of the said Samuel and Sarah, and also his and her, to wit: the said Samuel and Sarah, their dividend or portion of moneys by me willed and given, I do hereby empower my Executors to put said moneys out on use, and by my Executors to be also applied for the maintenance and education of said Samuel or Sarah. Should either die without issue, then I do order and it is my Will, and I do give and bequeath such part or parts of land and tenements and moneys remaining to my daughters in general, and to each and every of them, and to each and every of their heirs and assigns, in five equal divisions. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my sons, Henry Van Voorhees, John Van Voorhees, Zachariah Van Voorhees, and my sons-in-law, Richard Van Wyck and Christian Dubois, to be my Executors of this my last Will and Testament, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I, the said Court Van Voorhees, have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty-sixth day of December, A.D. One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

RALPH PHILLIPS, of the	} Will dated Aug. 29, 1810.
Town of Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y.
	} Proved July 1, 1813.
	} Recorded in Liber D., p. 365.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Ralph Phillips, of the Town of Fishkill, in the County of Dutchess and State of New York, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound and perfect mind and memory, blessed be almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say: First, I order that my funeral charges and all my just debts be paid by my Executors. Secondly, I will and order that the farm on which I now live be let by my Executors, and the rents and profits thereof to be paid to my loving wife Barbara, by them annually, for her support during her natural life ; and I also give and bequeath unto my wife all her linen, her wearing apparel, and a bed and bedding. I give and bequeath unto my Grãnddaughter Catherine Schutt, wife of Matthew Allen Schutt, the sum of One hundred and twenty-five dollars, to be paid to her as she needs it, at the discretion of my Executors. I will and order all my negro slaves whom I have not already given free, the same to be free whenever they shall arrive at the age of thirty years, provided they can be manumitted agreeable to the laws of this State ; provided also that my estate be discharged from any support for them. If in case I do not sell them myself, I will and order that my Executors sell them, provided that the said slaves, or either of them, suit to their own minds with a purchasor or purchasors. The remainder of my estate I order to be equally divided between my children, viz., John Phillips, Henry Phillips, James Phillips, and Abraham Phillips ; and two daughters, viz., Sarah, the wife of Daniel Van Voorhis, and Jane, the wife of Gilbert Noxon ; which equal dividends I give and bequeath unto them, their heirs and assigns forever, except the share of Abraham Phillips to be paid to him as he needs it, at the discretion of my Executors, and after his decease, if there should be any part left, the same to be paid to his heirs and assigns forever. And whereas, I have heretofore advanced unto my children monies, for which I hold their several receipts ; I will and order that the said several sums be not calculated with my estate, and no charge be made against them as part of their legacies. I do further order and empower my Executors to sell all my personal property at public vendue, and to make an equal dividend of the same among my children, share and share alike, in manner before mentioned. Lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint my sons John Phillips and James Phillips, together with my nephew Henry H. Phillips, my Executors to this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, the twenty-ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and ten.

To
ROBERT ELLIOTT, of Bedford, Westchester Co.	}

Conveys a lot of land, beginning at the corner of the farm of the heirs of Elias Van Voorhis.

In the Catalogue of the New York Historical manuscripts, vol. 1, p. 3, is a list of those who refused to sign the General Association of August 15, 1775, in which list appear the names of

JOHANNES VAN VOORHIS,

from which it appears that the two sons of Johannis Van Voorhees, Junior, favored the Tory party at the commencement of the War for Independence, and preferred to remain loyal to the king.

No will or letters of administration upon the estate of John Van Voorhis have been found by the writer.

Ransie or Ranche Nostrand, the second wife of John Van Voorhis, married after his death Cornelius Cooper, of Fishkill, and is buried in the churchyard of the Dutch Church, Fishkill Village.

John Van Voorhis was buried in the Van Voorhis burying-ground at Fishkill Landing.

DANIEL SOUTHARD,	of	} Will dated Nov. 12, 1779.
Rumbouts Precinct, Duch-	} Proved March 29, 1788.
ess County, New York.

In the name of God, Amen ! I, Daniel Southerd, of Rumbouts Precinct, Dutchess County, and State of New York, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, thanks be given to God for the same, and calling to mind that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say : First, I recommend my soul to God who gave it to me, and my body to the earth, to be buried in a christian-like manner at the discretion of my Executors, who shall hereafter be nominated, viz. :

First, I give to my son, Richard Southerd, my fowling-piece and yellow mare, and when he shall come of age Fifty pounds current lawful money of the State of New York, to him and his heirs forever—his birthright.

Secondly, That it is my will that my beloved wife, Sarah Southerd, be real master of all my estate for the bringing up of all of my children while she remains my widow ; but if she should come to marry, then, if my Executors should think it most for the advantage of the estate and the benefit of the children, to sell the whole of my estate, both real and personal, and to divide the same, share and share alike, with my beloved wife Sarah, Richard, Sarah, Jane, Catherine, Elizabeth, each to have an equal share and share alike between my wife and five children ; but if any should die before they come of age, and unmarried, so that they have no heirs, that moiety or share shall be equally divided among the remaining that are alive, share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever, except that what was above given, and my honest debts and funeral first paid. And I do hereby make and ordain my beloved wife Sarah Southerd and dear brothers Richard Southerd and Zebulon Southerd and Gilbert Southerd my sole Executors to this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine.

Elias Van Voorhis, although he appears to have favored the Tory party at the commencement of the Revolution, was nevertheless for some reason taken prisoner by the British in 1776, sent to New York City, and confined in the old Sugar-house Prison, where he died some time during the year 1778. He left no will, but an inventory of his personal estate is recorded in the office of the Surrogate of the City and County of New York.

 Dutchess County. } Recorded Liber 1, p. 51.

In the name of God, Amen. I, William Roe, of Rumbout Precinct, in Dutchess County and Province of New York, being in perfect health of body and of sound memory, blessed be God, do this nineteenth day of November, in the seventh year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord, George the Third, and in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and sixty-six, make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:

First, It is my Will, and I do order that all my just debts and funeral charges be satisfied and paid out of my estate by my Executors. Item: It is my Will that my farm last purchased, once in the possession of James Cunningham, be sold at Public Vendue to the highest bidder, and the monies arising therefrom be equally divided amongst my eight daughters, viz., Deborah Roe, Mary Roe, Anney Roe, Elizabeth Roe, Hannah Roe, Shusannah Roe, Phæbe Roe, and Massey Roe, each to enjoy an equal share, them and their heirs forever. Also I give and bequeath to my well beloved son, David Roe, the farm I now live upon, together with that Fifty acres which formerly belonged to Henry Monfort, including my dwelling-house and barns and all other my office houses, to enjoy the same, him and his heirs forever. Item : It is also my will, and I do order, that my well beloved wife, my two daughters, and my son David live together as formerly, and that no division be made, nor any of my farming implements be sold or disposed of until my son David Roe is of age. Item : It is my will that my well beloved wife, Shusannah Roe, have an honorable maintenance as long as she remains my widow ; but if my widow shall marry, what I here bequeath unto her, viz., my negro wench Sall, my chaise with horse and furniture, also her bed and furniture, and two cows, to hold to her during her natural life, she making no waste or destruction thereof ; from and after her decease I give and bequeath the same to my above named eight daughters, each of them an equal share. Item : It is my will that all of my movable estate be equally divided amongst my above mentioned eight daughters, each of them to have an equal share, and to enjoy the same, them and their heirs forever. Item : It is also my will that if any of my three youngest children should die before marriage, that then the estate here willed to them shall be equally divided amongst the rest of my surviving children. Item : It is also my will that my two daughters, Shusannah Roe and Phœbe Roe, have the back room in the northeast end of my dwelling-house as a house or place of residence while they, or either of them, remain single ; but after marriage them, or either of them, have no right to said room. Item : It is my will that my farm above willed to be sold, be sold as soon as possible after my decease, and that all the cattle or creatures be sold as my Executors think can be best spared, but by no means to strip the farm I now live upon of such creatures as shall be necessary to support the same, and that my well beloved wife enjoy her power of government in her family as a parent. Lastly, I make and ordain my brother Benjamin Roe and Joseph Thurston Executors of this my Will, for the interests and purposes in the same contained, to see the same performed according to my true intent and meaning.

In witness whereof, I, the said William Roe, have to this, my last Will and Testament, set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

In the name of God, Amen ! I, Zebulun Southard, of Fishkill, Dutchess County, State of New York, Farmer, being very sick and weak, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say : Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be burried in a decent burial at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God ; and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise, and dispose of the same in manner following, that is to say : All my funeral charges and just debts paid, I will that my wife Jane, my daughter Catherine, and my son Zebulun each have one feather bed and bedding, alike in quality, and the child my wife Jane is now pregnant with one bed and bedding equal as the other children. I will my Executors to sell as much of my personal estate, as soon as convenient, to pay my debts, excepting my negro, and if they cannot conveniently keep him, to be sold. I will my said farm I now live on to be kept for my wife and children until my children are of age, and they brought up at the discretion of my Executors on said farm, and then to be sold, and the money arising from said farm to be equally divided between my wife Jane, my daughter Sarah, my daughter Catherine, and my son Zebulun, and the child my wife Jane is now pregnant with, equally alike, to them and their heirs forever. And Lastly, I do nominate, constitute, make and ordain this, that Richard Southard, Senior; Richard Southard, Junior; Gilbert Southard and Rudolph Phillips, my Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannull all and every other Testaments, Wills by me in any ways before made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-eighth day of May, and in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

In the name of God, Amen ! The twenty-seventh day of January, in the twentieth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord, George the second of Great Britain, Anno Dom. 1746, I, Johannis Van Voorhees, Junior, of Rombout Precinct, in Dutchess County, sick and weak in body, but of good and in perfect memory—thanks be to the Almighty God therefor—do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say : First, I recommend my soul unto the Almighty God who gave it and my body to the earth, to be burried in such decent and christianlike manner, and in such place as by my Executors hereafter named shall be thought fit and expediant, hoping for a glorious resurrection at the last day. Imprimis : it is my will that all my just debts and funeral charges be first paid, and then I do give, grant, devise, and bequeath unto my loving wife Garritje the two hundred acres of land joining to my brother Corte's land, with all the improvements thereon, house and barn and orchard, as long as she remains in this life, and also the moveables of my estate as long as she remains my widow ; but when she comes to marry again, the moveables or personal estate all to be given to my daughters at the time when they come of age or come to marry ; and I give to my son Johannes one hundred and fifty and five acres of my woodland, and I give to my son Elias one hundred and forty and five acres of my woodland, to his heirs and assigns ; and my son Johannes and my son Elias to divide the said land according to quantity and quality, and my daughter Barbaratie, and my daughter Catrena, and my daughter Sare, and my daughter Jannetie, all to have an equal share of my moveable estate ; and if any one of my children should come to die without having any heirs, then that share to become an equal share among the rest ; and any other children that I shall procure from my said wife shall have their share as much in valley as any of the rest of my children which I have mentioned, in the two hundred acres of land, with the improvements, after my wife's decease, and all my children which I have mentioned shall have an equal share in the two hundred acres which I give to my wife, after her decease ; and if any comes to die without having any heirs, then that to become an equal share among the rest. Hereby I make and ordain my loving wife Garritje, and my brother Coort Van Voorhees, and my brother-in-law, Thunis Van Benscoten, my Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Zacharias Van Voorhis, of Rombout Precinct, in Dutchess County in the State of New York, Yeoman, in health and of sound memory—blessed be God therefor—do this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year of our Lord Christ, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say, Imprimis: I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection at the last day; and as for that worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses by my Executors hereinafter named, I give, devise, and dispose thereof as followeth. Item: I give, devise, and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, Henry Van Voorhis, son of my brother, Coart Van Voorhis, one-half of my farm whereon Abraham Van Voorhis now lives, to him and his heirs and assigns forever ; also my gun and one of my best horses. Item : I give, devise, and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, John Van Voorhis, son of my brother John Van Voorhis, deceased, the other half part of my said farm whereon said Abraham Van Voorhis now lives, to him and his heirs and assigns forever ; but it is my will, order, and desire that when my farm as aforesaid is divided between my said nephews, Henry and John Van Voorhis, the strictest justice is to be done to each of them. Item : I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, my farm whereon I now live, supposed to contain four hundred acres, together with my dwelling house and outbuildings thereon, to him and his assigns forever, as also all my personal estate, save only one of my best horses and gun to Henry Van Voorhis, son of Coart Van Voorhis. As such of my negroes as are hereafter named, who are immediately after my decease to be made free ; and moreover it is hereby perfectly to be understood that for and in consideration of my giving, devising, and bequeathing unto my said nephew, Jacob Van Voorhis as aforesaid, all my farm whereon I now live, with my personal estate, subject to the above exceptions, my order, will, and desire is that my said nephew, Jacob Van Voorhis, pays or causes to be paid the following sums of money, in Gold and Silver, to the persons hereafter named. Item : I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nieces, Katherine and Jane Van Voorhis, daughters of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, six hundred pounds in gold and silver, to be raised and levied out of the farm whereon I now live and my personal estate, and to be paid unto the said Katherine and Jane Van Voorhis in twelve months after my decease, which sum of money as aforesaid is to be equally divided between them, their heirs and assigns forever. Item : I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, John Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, the sum of three hundred pounds, to be paid to him, the said John Van Voorhis, in twelve months after my decease, which sum of money is to be raised and levied out of the farm whereon I live and out of the personal estate, and to be paid to him, the said John Van Voorhis, his heirs and assigns forever. Item : I give and bequeath unto my loving sister, Garachey Brinkerhoff, the sum of three hundred pounds, to be paid to the said Garachey Brinkerhoff in two years after my decease, out of the farm whereon I now live and out of my personal estate. Item : I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew Zacharia Van Voorhis, son of my brother Coart, and my godson, the sum of one hundred pounds, to be paid unto him, the said Zacharia Van Voorhis, in three years after my decease, out of the farm whereon I now live and my personal estate, to him, his heirs and assigns forever. Item : I give and bequeath unto my brother's and sister's children not heretofore mentioned the sum of two hundred and forty pounds, which sum of money is to be paid them out of my farm whereon I now live and my personal estate, in four years after my decease, which sum of money, as aforesaid, is to be divided equally between them, their heirs and assigns forever. Item : I give unto my negro men, Mink, Henry, and Sam, and my negro wench Massey, their full and entire freedom, to come and go, act and do whatever is lawful for the support or maintenance of themselves ; moreover, my will, order, and desire is that when my negroes as aforesaid have their liberty, it is not my intention to throw them adrift, whereby I am now instigated, but that I may commemorate their faithful services to my own person and interest, my Executors are to oversee them for good and to help them in case any person or persons should aim to cheat or defraud them of their earnings. It is also my particular desire that, as soon as my body is decently interred, that my said executors will please to order my said negroes into that appartment in my house where I died, and there in the most solomn manner proclaim to them their freedom and my desire that they will strive to live soberly and righteously and godly; with respect to my negro children, namely, Charles, Nick, Tom, Abe, and Peg, it is my will, order and desire that my said Executors put them out to such of my relatives as in the opinion of said Executors will use them well and will engage to teach or cause them to be taught to read the Scriptures, until such time as they arrive of lawful age, when my said negro children as aforesaid are to have their freedom. With regard to my other negroes, to wit, Peter, Tone, and Mary, I give and bequeath them to my affectionate and loving nephew Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Lastly, I do by these presents nominate, constitute and appoint my said nephews Henry Van Voorhis, son of Coart Van Voorhis, Jacob Van Voorhis, son of Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, and John Van Voorhis, son of John Van Voorhis, deceased, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former and other Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

ZACRIAS VAN VOORHIS.

Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the testator, Zacharias Van Voorhis, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence and hearing of us the subscribers, who subscribed our names in the presence of the testator and at his request.

Be it remembered that before the en sealing of this my last Will and Testament, the words "and gun," "be," "them," were interlined; and that the reason why I have given the greatest share of my estate to my nephew, Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother, Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, is because I and said Jacob Van Voorhis' father got the greatest part of our estate in partnership. The first attempt at signing was not room therefor; the second was done in the presence of us the witnesses.

Will recites :

He gives his eldest son, Abraham Mesier, the corner house and lot of ground wherein the said Abraham Mesier now lives. He gives his son, Peter Mesier, Junior, the corner house and lot of ground wherein the said Peter Mesier, Junior, now lives. He gives his daughter Elizabeth, wife of Abraham Bussing, the house and lot of ground wherein the said Abraham Bussing now lives. He gives to his two grandchildren, Jacob Van Voorhis, Junior, and John Van Voorhis, children of my daughter Catherine, deceased, wife of Jacob Van Voorhis, the house and lot of ground wherein Jacob Van Voorhis now lives, in the West Ward, on the South side of Courtlandt Street, and to their heirs and assigns forever. But if one of his grandchildren shall happen to die before they come to years of maturity or have lawful issue, in such case it shall fall to the survivor, his heirs and assigns forever. He directs that the remainder of his real and personal estate shall, within five years after his decease, be equally divided into four equal parts, and gives to Abraham Mesier the one-fourth part, to Peter Mesier, Junior, the one-fourth part, to his daughter Elizabeth the one-fourth part, and to his grandchildren, Jacob Van Voorhis, Junior, and John Van Voorhis, the one-fourth part. He leaves as his Executors his two sons, Abraham Mesier and Peter Mesier, Junior.

New York City.		Proved April 5, 1784.
		Recorded Liber 36, p. 369.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Jacob Van Voorhis, of the City of New York, merchant, being at present in good health and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, thanks be to God for the same, but considering the uncertainty of this life and the certainty of death, do make my last Will and Testament, as follows: First, my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid as soon as conveniently may be after my decease. Secondly, I give to my two sons, Jacob and John, all my wearing apparel. Thirdly, I give to my two daughters, Gertrude and Jane, all the wearing apparel that belonged to their mother. Fourthly, I give, devise and bequeath one-sixth part of all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, unto my wife Sarah, her heirs and assigns forever, in bar and satisfaction of her right of dower; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said son Jacob, and to his heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said son John, and to his heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise, and bequeath unto my said daughter Gertrude, and to her heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said daughter Jane, and to her heirs and assigns forever; and the remaining one-sixth part thereof unto my said wife's daughter, Cornelia White, and to her heirs and assigns forever; and if any or either of my said children should die under age or unmarried, the part and share of such child or children so dying shall go to and be equally divided among the survivors of my said children, their heirs and assigns forever. And my will is that my said wife Sarah shall have and receive the rents, profits and interest of my said estate until my youngest surviving child arrives to the age of twenty-one years, if my said wife shall so long live and continue my widow, for the support and maintenance of herself and her said daughter and my said four children, and that a division of my estate be made when my youngest surviving child arrives to the age of twenty-one years, or upon the death or marriage of my said wife, whichever shall first happen; and in order that an equal division may be made I empower and authorize my Executors and the survivors and survivor of them to sell all my Real Estate at such times and in such manner as they may think proper. And Lastly, I nominate and appoint my said wife Sarah and my two sons, Jacob and John, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke all former Wills by me made and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the first day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

HOMESTEAD OF MAJOR WILLIAM ROE VAN VOORHIS—FISHKILL, DUTCHESS CO., N. Y.—1792.

SEVENTH GENERATION

Of the Line of Descent of William Roe Van Voorhis.

D. 3. IV. a. WILLIAM ROE VAN VOORHIS, eldest son of John Van Voorhis and Hannah Roe, born at Fishkill, Nov. 10, 1764; m. May 12, 1788, Rachel, daughter of Isaac Vail, of Fishkill. He resided all his life at Fishkill Village, and was a prominent man in the affairs of both the town and the Dutch Church in that village. From the records of the church it appears that he was elected deacon for the years 1807-1808, 1811-1812, and that his wife was baptized and admitted into the church Oct. 31, 1796. He held the commission of major in the 149th Regiment of Infantry during the war of 1812, and was with his regiment encamped at White Plains for some time. In personal appearance he was of commanding presence, being nearly six feet in height and of large and well-built frame. He possessed a fine, rosy complexion, which adhered to him up to the time of his death, and he was remarked by all who knew him late in life to be the picture of a healthful old age. He was of a genial and kindly disposition, and especially fond of children, and was a great favorite among the young people of the village. He was especially noted for his unbounded hospitality, and his house was constantly filled with visitors from among his friends and kindred. After a life of usefulness and prosperity he passed peacefully from earth in his 64th year, and was buried in the churchyard of the Dutch Church at Fishkill Village, where seventeen years later his wife was laid beside him, their tombstones bearing the following inscriptions :

WILLIAM R. VAN VOORHIS, of Fishkill, Dutchess County.	} Will dated Sept. 13, 1828. } Proved Nov. 24, 1828. } Recorded Liber H, p. 118.

In the name of God, Amen! I, William R. Van Voorhis, of the Town of Fishkill, in the County of Dutchess, being weak in body but of sound disposing mind, memory, and understanding, being conscious of the uncertainty of life and of the certainty of death, and being desirous of making a suitable disposition of the worldly estate wherewith God has blessed me, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament; and I do hereby revoke all other Wills and Codicils by me at any time heretofore made. First, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Rachel, if she should survive me, Executrix; my son William R. Van Voorhis, and Isaac Adriance, of the City of New York, Counsellor at Law, Executors of this my last Will and Testament. Second: I do hereby give, devise, and bequeath unto my said Executrix and Executors all my Estate, both real and personal, to have and to hold the same to them and to the survivor of them, and to the heirs of such survivor, with full power and authority to them, and to the survivor of them, and to the heirs of such survivor, to sell and dispose of all or any part of my real estate at public auction, and to execute any deed or deeds to the purchaser thereof in fee simple, whenever they may deem it most advisable so to do, which devise to my Executors and Executrix is for the uses and purposes and upon the trusts hereinafter mentioned, viz.: To pay all my just debts and funeral expenses, then to pay the annual income arising from my said estate so devised in trust to my beloved wife during her natural life, or so long as she shall remain my widow. As I have given to my daughter Hannah, wife of Isaac C. Van Wyck, and to my daughter Susan, wife of Sylvanus Rapalje, each the sum of five hundred dollars for their marriage outfits, I do likewise order and direct my Executrix and Executors aforesaid to pay unto each of my daughters Rachel and Julia respectively, the like sum of five hundred dollars upon their respective days of marriage, or upon the decease of my said wife, whichever event may first happen. I do likewise order and direct my said Executors to pay unto my son, Cornelius Westbrook, the like sum of five hundred dollars, to be paid to him after the death of my said wife, and I do likewise give to my son William the sum of five hundred dollars, to be paid to him after the death of my said wife. As my son Elias lived with me after he arrived at lawful age, and assisted me on my farm, and I having at different times advanced him large sums of money, which were intended by me as a recompense for his services; now, in order to make the said Elias equal with my other children, I do order and direct my said Executors to pay unto the said Elias the sum of one hundred dollars after the death of my said wife, which sum of one hundred dollars, with the moneys I have already advanced him, is to be in lieu and in bar of all claim or claims upon my estate for services rendered, or for any legal claims he may have against me. And should the said Elias, after my death, prosecute any claim or claims against my estate, I do order and direct my said Executors to charge him with all the moneys so advanced by me to him, and to satisfy his legal claims out of the share of my estate coming to him by this my Will. Having heretofore given to my son Joseph a note for four hundred dollars, which was intended by me as an outfit for him, but which has never been paid, I do order and direct my said Executors, after the death of my wife, to pay to the said Joseph the sum of five hundred dollars in lieu and in bar of the said note; and in case the payment of the said note should be enforced by law, I order my said Executors to pay the same out of the share of my estate coming to the said Joseph by this my Will. If my said wife and Executors should think proper to pay all or any of the aforesaid legacies before her death, they are to be at liberty to do so. After the death of my said wife, and after the payment of my just debts, funeral expenses, and legacies aforesaid, I order and direct my said Executors to divide the residue of my personal estate, and the proceeds of the sales of my real estate, into eight equal parts. I do then order my said Executors to pay unto my son Elias, his heirs or assigns, the one equal eighth part thereof; to my son Joseph, his heirs or assigns, one other equal eighth part thereof; to my son William, his heirs or assigns, one other equal eighth part thereof; to my son Cornelius Westbrook, his heirs or assigns, one other eighth part thereof. I do hereby order and direct my said Executors to pay over into the hands of each of my daughters, Hannah, Susan, Rachel, and Julia respectively during their natural lives annually, the annual interest arising from each of the remaining equal eighth parts of my Estate, upon their respective receipts only, notwithstanding they are or may be covert, and not to be subject to the charges, control, debts or demands of their present or future husbands; and in case of the death of my said daughters, or either of them, my said Executors are to pay over to such person or persons respectively, as they may respectively designate and appoint, an equal eighth part of my Estate of which they respectively have the use, and in default of such appointment by an instrument in writing, duly made according to law, sufficient to pass real estate by Will, I do order and direct my said Executors to pay the same to the right heirs-at law of the one so dying. My Will further is that all the property coming to my daughters by virtue of this my Will, in consequence of the death of either of my aforesaid children, shall be held by my Executors upon the same trusts, and for the same purposes, as the four-eighths of which they respectively have the use.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this thirteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

ISAAC VAIL, of the Town of	} Dated July 6, 1808.
Fishkill, Dutchess County.
New York.
	} Proved Oct. 18, 1808.
	} Recorded in Liber C, p. 252.

In the name of God, Amen ! I, Isaac Vail, of the Town of Fishkill, County of Dutchess and State of New York, Farmer, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God, do, this sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eight, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say : First, I give my negro boy Lewis, aged ten years, unto my son Joseph Vail and his heirs, until the first day of May, which will be in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, at which time it is my will that he be furnished with two good suits of clothes and be maunumitted. I give my son-in-law, William R. Van Voorhis, and to his heirs, my negro boy Peter, aged fifteen years, until the first day of May which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, at which time it is my will that he be furnished with two good suits of clothes and be maunumitted. I give unto my grandson, Isaac Vail Van Voorhis, the choice of my horses immediately after my decease, and the sum of Five hundred dollars, to be paid One hundred Dollars on the first day of January next, and the remaining Four hundred dollars when he arrives to the age of twenty-one years; and should he die before he so becomes of age without lawful issue, then it is my will that whatever may remain unpaid of the said Five hundred Dollars be then paid unto my daughter, Rachel Van Voorhis, or to her heirs. I give unto my daughter Rachel, the wife of William R. Van Voorhis aforesaid, the sum of Five hundred Dollars, Two hundred and fifty Dollars of which be paid to her or to her heirs, on the first day of May which will be in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the remaining Two hundred and fifty Dollars to be paid to her or to her heirs on the first day of May which will be in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and all my household furniture which may remain after the death of my wife. I give unto John Brookhout, my wife's brother, or to his heirs, the sum of Fifty Dollars, to be paid one year after my decease. Unto my true and well beloved wife Hester I give the use of all of that part of my dwelling-house which I now occupy; the use of two Cows together with their keeping both Summer and Winter, and convenient firewood to be furnished at her door during her remaining my widow, and all of my household furniture; and if she should need it for her maintenance, the sum of Thirty-five dollars and twelve pounds of wool yearly during her natural life. And I enjoin on my Executors to pay all my lawful debts and funeral charges, and to pay and perform all the bequests of this my last Will and Testament. And all the rest and residue of my goods, chattels and personal estate whatsoever I give unto my son Joseph Vail, and to his heirs. And all my lands and Tenements whatsoever whereof I shall die seized, in possession, reversion or remainder, I give unto my said son Joseph Vail, his heirs and assigns forever. And I make, constitute and ordain my son Joseph Vail, my son-in-law William R. Van Voorhis, and William Hughson my Executors.

In witness whereof, I, the said Isaac Vail, have to this my last Will and Testament set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

EIGHTH GENERATION

Of the Line of Descent of William Roe Van Voorhis.

The family of WILLIAM ROE VAN VOORHIS, b. Nov. 10, 1764; d. Nov. 2, 1828; m. May 12, 1788, Rachel Vail, b. June 1, 1767; d. June 12, 1845, was as follows:

1. Dr. Isaac Van Voorhis, b. Feb. 22, 1790; killed at the massacre of Fort Dearborn, Aug. 15, 1812, unmarried.

The following extract is from the "Field-Book of the War of 1812," by Benson J. Lossing:

"In the Spring of 1812 the garrison of Fort Dearborn was commanded by Capt. Nathan Heald, assisted by Lieutenant Linai T. Helm and Ensign George Ronan. The Surgeon was Dr. Van Voorhees. The garrison consisted of fifty-four men. The massacre of Fort Dearborn, or Chicago, took place Aug. 15, 1812. In this terrible tragedy in the wilderness, fifty-five years ago, twelve children, all the masculine citizens except Mr. Kenzie and his sons, Capt. Wells, Ensign Ronan, Surgeon Van Voorhees, and twenty-six private soldiers, were murdered.

"Dr. Cooper, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was the immediate predecessor of Dr. Van Voorhees at Fort Dearborn. They were natives of the same town, Fishkill, Dutchess Co., and were classmates. Van Voorhees was a young man of great powers. Dr. Cooper left the Fort in 1811, tendered his resignation, and left the army."

The following obituary notice is from a newspaper, The Political Index, published at Newburg, Orange Co., N. Y., issue of November 17, 1812.

"In the communication of Capt. Heald, late Commander at Fort Dearborn, we have a particular account of the destruction of the principal part of the men under his command by the savages.

"Among the slain was Dr. Isaac Van Voorhis, of Fishkill, Surgeon in the Army. He was a young man of great merit, and received his early education at the Academy in this village. He possessed an enterprising and cultivated mind, and was ardent in the support of the interest and honor of his country. When asked if he was willing to go to the garrison at Fort Osage, several hundred miles up the Missouri river, his reply was, 'I am ready to serve my country wherever my services may be required.' He was ordered to Fort Dearborn, at the Southwest end of Lake Michigan. In a letter, Oct., 1811, to a friend in this village he says, 'In my solitary walks I contemplate what a great and powerful republic will yet arise in this new world. Here, I say, will be the seat of millions yet unborn; here the asylum of oppressed thousands yet to come. How composedly would I die could I be resuscitated at that bright era of American greatness—an era which I hope will announce the tidings of death to fell superstition and dread tyranny.' Also, 'I cannot but notice the villainy practised in the Indian Country by British agents and traders; you hear of it at a distance, but we near the scene of action are sensible of it. They labor by every unprincipled means to instigate the Savages against the Americans, to inculcate the idea that we intend to drive the Indians beyond the Mississippi, and that in every purchase of land the Government defrauds them; and their united efforts aim too at the destruction of every trading-house and the prevention of the extension of our frontier. Never till a prohibition to the entrance of all foreigners, and especially British subjects, into the Indian country takes place, will we enjoy a lasting peace with the credulous, deluded and cannibal savages.'

"To their barbarity he has fallen an early victim. His country has lost an intelligent and patriotic citizen, and his connexions and friends are bereaved of one whose death they will long deplore."

2. Elias William Van Voorhis, b. Aug. 14, 1791; d. Aug. 17, 1869; m. 1st, June 19, 1832, Sarah Ann, dau. of Thomas Barker, of New York City, b. ; d. Aug. 8, 1840; m. 2^d, May 24, 1842, Maria Louisa, dau. of Thomas Barker, b. Dec. 9, 1818, and had children:

I. Barker, b. Sept. 27, 1833; d. Feb. 20, 1880; m. Feb. 13, 1856, Elizabeth, dau. of Abraham D. Snedeker, of Jamaica, L. I.

II. Sarah Ann, b. June 13, 1839; m. Jan. 11, 1860, John Oppie Brintnall, of New York City.

III. Elias William, b. May 28, 1844.

2. Elias William Van Voorhis, Senior, held the commission of Ensign in the 149th Regiment of Infantry during the war of 1812. His commission, in the possession of the writer, is dated March 2, 1814, and is signed by Daniel D. Tompkins, Governor State of New York.

The following obituary notice is from the New York Sun, issue of Aug. 19, 1869:

"At his residence in 36th Street, Elias W. Van Voorhis died on Tuesday. He was born in 1790, at Fishkill, and remained in his native place, farming with his father, until he was 24 years of age, when he came to New York, and for several years transacted business between here and Savannah. He subsequently entered the dry goods business, and about 1830 went into the oil business, in which he remained until about ten or twelve years ago. While he was engaged in active life, petroleum and its fluctuation and speculations was unknown.

"Mr. Van Voorhis and old Mr. Samuel Judd, whose stores faced each other, were the most prominent men in the business. Mr. Van Voorhis commanded a detachment of the American army at White Plains, in the war of 1812. He is to be buried to-day."

The following obituary is from the Long Island Farmer, issue of Aug. 25, 1869:

"At Yonkers, on the 17th inst., Elias W. Van Voorhis, aged 80 years. Mr. Van Voorhis, for a number of years, was a resident of this village. Born among the old Knickerbockers on the banks of the Hudson, he left his home at an early age and commenced his business life in the City of New York, in which, after a career of nearly half a century, he accumulated a large property. For more than a year Mr. Van Voorhis has been an invalid, scarcely leaving his home during that period until a few weeks since, when, in the hope of improving his declining health, he was taken to Yonkers, at which place he died. As a kind husband, indulgent father and a faithful friend, his loss will be deeply deplored."

The following obituary is from the Long Island Democrat, issue of Aug. 23, 1869:

"Mr. Elias W. Van Voorhis, who resided several years in Jamaica, died in Yonkers on the Hudson, on Tuesday of last week, aged 80 years. He was buried from his residence, 129 East 36th Street, New York City, on Friday last. Mr. Van Voorhis was highly esteemed by all classes while living in this village. He was very kind to the poor, and without ostentation bestowed his liberal charities with cheerfulness. He was, during his residence here, an acting Elder in the Ref. Prot. Dutch Church of Jamaica, and was always liberal in support of the Church and its institutions. He contributed also to other denominations, and never withheld his aid when satisfied that his money would do good. 'The memory of the just is blessed.'"

VIII. Caroline, bap. Jan. 14, 1833.

The following obituary notice appeared in the Fishkill Journal, issue of April 6, 1876.

"OBITUARY.—Departed this life at Plainfield, N. J., at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Jones, Hannah Van Wyck, daughter of the late Wm. R. Van Voorhis, of Fishkill, and widow of the late Isaac Van Wyck, in the eighty-third year of her age. This excellent Christian lady was united early in life with Mr. Isaac C. Van Wyck, merchant of New York for many years, who died respected and beloved by all, which event filled the heart of his surviving wife with sadness and sorrow, increased shortly after by the death of her beloved mother, an estimable Christian lady, greatly beloved and respected, who was born and cradled amid the stormy events of the American Revolution. Among those who fled from the City of New York at this period was the well-known Van Steenburgh, who removed to Fishkill, where a detachment of Washington's army was located. He was a teacher of celebrity, and instructed the youth of Fishkill and vicinity during the war, which circumstance accounts for the general education and refinement pervading the population of Fishkill and their descendants. Mrs. Van Wyck was a lovely and educated Christian lady, and in her youth and prime was remarkable for beauty of person, with attractive and most pleasing manners, greatly beloved, noble in her hospitalities, a bright and shining light in her home amid a large family circle, untiring in her devotions, no exertion too severe, always ready to sacrifice her own pleasure in order to contribute to the happiness and advance the prosperity of her family and friends. In this respect she was most remarkable and had no superior, which in a measure accounts for the grief manifested by her sorrowing family in losing such a mother and such a friend, although having passed the ordinary boundary of life, when a further continuance here, amid the pressure of age and infirmity, was to her only labor and sorrow. The writer of this imperfect sketch knew her well. Her memory will long be fragrant and cherished; her pleasant and cheering words of comfort to the despondent, her charities which have relieved many a sorrowing heart, always looking on the bright side amid the sorrows and troubles of life, which she met with Christian resignation and serenity. Her funeral services took place in the village of Fishkill, April 3d, and her remains were buried in the Fishkill Rural Cemetery. Rev. Dr. Van Santvoord, of Kingston, delivered the address, assisted by Rev. Mr. Anderson, the pastor of the ancient and venerable church where she so often attended in early life—the church of her ancestors, then under the ministry of her friend and pastor, the late Rev. Dr. C. D. Westbrook; in view of the grand old mountains and elegant scenery of that beautiful valley consecrated to her remembrance during life, a fitting place after weary life is ended for her mortal body to repose, and sleep her last sleep in the home of her youth, the place of her early joys and affections.—F. E. W."

TRANSLATION.

To the Noble, Very Worshipful, their Honours the Director-General and Council of N. Netherland.

Humbly sheweth Frans Jansen van Huchten, that he, the petitioner, obtained from your Noble Worships a judgment, by which the heirs of Wolphert Gerritsen were condemned not only on the principal point relating to the parcel of land in dispute, but also to pay the expenses as taxed, together with a decree and order of execution; that notwithstanding this judgment the heirs, defeated in the former suit, delay the payment of the costs taxed and adjudged to the petitioner, and keep him constantly running as in a treadmill.

By special consent of his Noble Worship, the Director-General, he attached in the village of Amesfoort such moneys as were received for the house and farm formerly belonging to Wolphert Gerritsen and sold by his heirs among themselves, and kept in deposit either by Elbert Elbertsen or by the second purchaser, Kourt Stevensen, to recover thereby the aforesaid taxed bill of costs and other expenses. He summoned Elbert Elbertsen and Kourt Stevensen before your Noble Worships, hoping that your Noble Worships would order them to satisfy your petitioner immediately; they however did not appear, but let the case go by default, and therefore the petitioner's attachment was declared valid.

Now whereas the petitioner apprehends, that instigated by the heirs the summoned parties might endeavor to delay him further and make this lawsuit perpetual,

Therefore your petitioner very humbly requests your Noble Worships that they will please to direct the Schout of the aforesaid village to summon the said Elbert Elbertsen or Steven Koertsen to pay to the petitioner within eight days from the moneys received as above, the money, the payment of which, although long due, has been delayed until now, namely, the whole amount and his costs, on the penalty of immediate execution, and that in case the amount due, as aforesaid, should have been paid before the date of the said attachment, the claim to the amount next due be sold for cash to the highest bidder at public auction; that thereby the petitioner may enjoy the benefit of your Noble Worships' judgment and further orders. Which doing, etc.

FRANS JANSEN VAN HOCHTEN.

21 February, 1664, Thursday.

Pieter Wolphertsen van Couwenhoven cum sociis, plaintiff, v.
Jacob van Couwenhoven, defendant.

The defendant is in default the third time.

Complaint made and delivered to the Noble, Very Worshipful, their Honors the Director-General and Council of New Netherland, by and in behalf of Peter van Couwenhoven, Jan van Couwenhoven, Roeloff Martensen as husband and guardian of Neeltje van Couwenhoven, and Koert Stevensen as husband and guardian of Marretje Couwenhoven, as plaintiffs, against Jacob van Couwenhoven, defendant, all the parties being the heirs of the late Wolphert Gerritsen van Couwenhoven.

Noble, Very Worshipful Gentlemen :

The plaintiffs, as heirs of the said Wolphert Gerritsen van Couwenhoven—their respective father and grandfather—for two shares, say and declare by the protest drawn up by the Notary Salomon La Chair, submitted under A, and the reports of the Court Messenger and the Concierge, under B and C, that the defendant, co-heir of the said Wolphert Gerritsen for one share, has by his disobedience and opposition, caused the expenses and troubles resulting from the well known lawsuit undertaken by Frans Jansen van Huchten against their father and grandfather respectively.

The plaintiffs therefore endeavored by a friendly interpellation to persuade the defendant to indemnify them for the said expenses, which he personally had incurred, amounting to fl. 502, 3, 8, as shown by the bill of taxation and specification under D and E. Defendant answering by taking exceptions not to the point refused to do this, as appears under F.

The plaintiffs have found themselves compelled therefore to have recourse to the means of justice, and for the sake of avoiding a long-protracted lawsuit have at an early day sent a copy hereof to defendant, that he may give his answer if he has any.

They request that the defendant, for the alleged reasons, be sentenced definitively by your Noble Worships to pay the aforesaid sum, and that the same sum be adjudged to plaintiffs out of the moneys, which plaintiffs have attached—by virtue of the deed of cession made by the said Frans Jansen, also submitted under E—in the hands of Elbert Elbertsen, of Amersfoort, as shown by G; that this amount be declared subject to execution; and, further, that he pay all other fines which they may deem expedient, together with the expenses.

Your Noble Worships' Servants.

Pieter van Couwenhoven, Jan Gerritsen van Couwenhoven in the name of the other heirs, Willem van Couwenhoven, Roeloff Martensen, and Coert Stevensen.

The prayer of the petitioners was granted.

Certificate for Jan Elten.

To-day, the 10th of October, 1679, appeared before us Captain James Hubbard, Elbert Elbertsen Stoothoff and Jacques Corteljou, at the request of Jan Elten, a resident of Kingston now about to depart for the Fatherland, the worshipful Steven Coerten, seventy-nine years old, William Roeloffs, sixty years old, Jan Strycker—armorer—sixty-four years old, Jan Subringh, forty-eight years old, Coert Stevensen, forty-two years old, all natives of the land of Drenten, who declare that it is true that the above-named petitioner is the lawful son of Roeloff Elten by his wife Aeltje Elten, of the village of Swigtel in the said land of Drenten.

They further declare to the best of their information that they have always known him as an honest and virtuous man, and that as far as they can remember they never knew any other man of the same name. They are willing to confirm their testimony by a solemn oath. In witness of the truth they sign this with their own hands, at New Amesfoort, on Long Island in America, date as above.

STEVEN COERTEN.
